TREECIAL TO THE WORLD. 1
WASHINGTON. Nov. 14. -- If New York doesn't de something about Grant's monument pretty soon there will be trouble. Here is the text of a series of resolutions passed by George G. Meade Post, No. 5, Department of the Poto-

a series of resolutions passed by George G.
Meade Post, No. 5. Department of the Potomac, G. A. H., on the subject:

"Facega, The citizens of the city of New York promised that in consideration of the burial of the remains of our distinguished comrade. Gen. U. b.
Grant, within the incorporate limits of said city, the citizens thereof would erect a monument commensurate with the services of this distinguished here and stateship four years have elaysed, and no monument has as yet been erected, and we believe that many years wil clayses before such monument will be srected by the city and State of New York, and the most universal desire of the surviving comrades of our beloved general being that his remains should be denosited in the National Cemetery at Arlington. Va., or Soldiers' Home at Washington, D. G.; therefore, be it

Mesde Post, No. 5, Department of the Postonac, G.
A. M., at a regular meeting of the Post held this 12th day of November, 1889, express our unanimous desire that the remains of our comrade. U. S. Grant, be removed from Riversule Park, in the city of New York to Arlincton, Va., and there buried by the side of the hero
ui the Shenandoah Valley, Lieut. Gen. Phil. H.
Sheridan, and that an opportunity be afforded the surviving soldiers of the iste war to manifest their ideal soldier and statesm in by the erection of such a monument as shall commemorate his services for his country in war and in cesso.

MRS. GOODLOE'S DESIRE FOR OFFICE. She Asks Only for What Was Fairly Won by Her Late Husband.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD. LEXIBSTON, Ky., Nov. 14. - Speaking of the application of the widow of the late Col. Goodles for the Federal office made vacant by her husband's death, Major Green Clay Goodloe her brother-in-law, to-day said to a WonLD reporter who visited him at Londoun:

porter whe visited him at Loudoun:

"The friends of Mrs. Goodioe expressed a desire that she should succeed to the office lately held by her busband. In making an application for the place she did not desire that it should be given her through pity, and she does not desire that she should be given anything not fairly and doservedly won, by her husband. She believes it is the opinion of the people of the State of his birth that she should be able to suggest who should succeed to the office made vacant by the death of her husband."

It is learned from the very best authority that Mrs. Goodlee is a woman of fine business qualifation, and there is not the least doubt that if she should be appointed, the affairs of the office would be conducted with the same care and with as much accuracy as they have been under Col. Goodloe's administration.

The Behemian Diet Resolves to Deprive Them of Their Seats.

VIENNA. Nov. 14.-The Bohemian Diet has uvanimously passed a resolution declaring that all members who have been absent from the sittings without leave since the opening of the sesrion shall be held to have resigned their seats. This decision ousts the German members of the

The Bohemian Diet is composed of a Czech or National Bohemian majority and of a Germansiesking minority. The latter consists of about a third of the total numbers of the Diet. With a view of preventing certain legislation for which the pre-circe of three-fourths of the entire Diet is necessary, and likewise with the object of protesting against acts on the part of the majority which they the minority are powerless to prevent, the German members have until now systematically absented themselves in a body from the chamber. The resolution finst passed by the Diet, as described in the tegraphic despatch, is destined to meet this difficulty and to punish the absentees.

SHIPPING "JIMMY" HOPE. The Manhattan Bank Robber to Be Taken Back to Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 14.-Detective Vandegrift will leave to-morrow for New York to arrest " Jimmy" Hope, the well-known bank burglar, who is held there awaiting the requisition of the Delaware authorities, Hope, Frank Cater, alias "Big Frank," Frank Lawler and Edward Hurlburt, all notorious cracksmen, composed the gang which made the bold and unsuccessful attempt to rob the National Eank of Delaware in Wilmington in November, 1873. captured, and after undergoing the penalty of the lash were sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. After serving but little over six months they escaped. Big Frank was recaptured twice, and now, old and broken down, has completed seven years of his imprisonment. If brought back. Hope will have to serve about nine years. The other two men were never renine years. The other two men were never re-captured. The requisition papers were signed to-day by Gov. Biggs.

"Jimmy" Hope, the noted bank burglar, who is in the Tombs awaiting trial for complicity in the Manhattan Bank robbery of ten years ago, is a sort of white elephant on the hands of the authorities. Inspector Byrnes does not want him to enjoy freedom in this State; District-Attorney Fellows does not want to try him, and two courts are pondering over the question of allowing liberly to such a dangerous oriminal. Yesteritay Hope's counsel got a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Brown, in the United States Circuit Court, asking his discharge on the ground that as Hope was extradited from California to serve out his unexpired term in Auburn he could not be legally held on another charge. The writ is returnable Friday, on which day the Recorder will give his decision.

Beslin, Nov. 14.—The Tageblatt says that Emperor Francis Joseph has permitted Archduke John of Austria to assume the name of Johann Orth. The ex-Archduke, the paper says, will enter a shipbuilding yard in London. CONTINUED!
